River's Edge Summer Series at Independence's Riverview Amphitheater

Featuring The Deadliest Catch, a Night with Capt. Sig Hanson

INDEPENDENCE, Ore. – River's Edge Summer Series will be presenting eight weeks of free concerts, movies, and events at the Riverview Park and Amphitheater in Independence, Oregon. Starting July 1 and running through August 31, the series features blockbusters like Cars 2 and Star Trek, concerts from local and out of state bands, and special events such as a classic car show.

The highlight event will be a showing of the hit reality show The Deadliest Catch on July 21. Captain Sig Hansen will be in attendance to answer questions from the audience. The Discovery Channel's, Deadliest Catch, has won four Emmy awards and is about the dangerous life of Bering Sea crab fishermen. A crab feed will start at 11:00am, with the show starting at 7:00pm. Tickets are $20 for general admission and $30 for reserved seating. There will be parking at the riverfront.
